Concurso de Contratação de Doutorados – CIÊNCIA 2008

The Center for Innovation in Electrical and Energy Engineering (<https://fenix.ist.utl.pt/research/cieeee>) offers two research positions in the fields of Applied Electromagnetics and Electronic Devices (1) and Power and Energy Systems (1).

The Center for Innovation in Electrical and Energy Engineering (CIEEEE) is a research center of the Instituto Superior Técnico, one of the oldest and largest schools of Science and Engineering in Portugal, member of the prestigious network of leading European Universities of Technology CLUSTER. The CIEEEE's mission is to enhance a position as an internationally recognized center of excellence in electrical and energy engineering. The focus of the center's research work is in the areas of electrical and energy engineering and economics, with particular attention to applied electromagnetics, electronic and semiconductor devices, energy conversion, power electronics, power quality, power and energy systems, and public and environmental policies. Duties of successful candidates include doing independent work, participating in research projects, system modeling and development, and preparation of manuscripts. The working language is English.

The successful candidates will receive a salary in accordance with the university regulations for a senior researcher. The contract offered will have duration of up to 5 years, renewed yearly based on mutual agreement. The annual gross income, before taxes, will be approximately 3,000 Euros x 14 months.

APPLICANTS

Applicants should have obtained a PhD in Electrical and Computer Engineering. Candidates should preferably have a high quality research record and at least 3 years of post-doctoral research experience. The successful candidates are expected to do research in the areas listed above. For more information, consult <http://www.eracareers.pt>.

HOW TO APPLY
